The Collect for Today

Almighty God, on this day Jesus entered Jerusalem and was proclaimed King with palm branches along his way. Let those branches be for us signs of his love and victory. May we ever hail Jesus as our Lord and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life. In his name we pray. Amen

Today's Gospel

Jesus' Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem by Ukrainian artist Oleksandr Antonyuk forces us to look twice. It is so unlike what we expect. We find ourselves not altogether recognising that here is the Messiah, the King of Kings entering Jerusalem. And yet maybe this is Antonyuk's intention. Jesus was hailed as king, but people failed to recognise him for what he really was. They were seeing a warrior, a freedom fighter to lead an uprising and rid their land of occupying Romans. They failed to see Jesus as He really was, Messiah - the gentle Son of God whose power was in love, goodness and service, not hatred, envy and self-seeking. So we are prompted to ask ourselves who is the Jesus we see in this painting, but, more importantly who is the Jesus we see in St Mary's today and in our lives.
